

Public Service Announcement Contest for Grades 4-12

“Every Day is a Good Day... Alcohol Free”

Highlight this message through a poster, video or written entry.

The Sussex County Coalition for Healthy and Safe Communities is hosting our 23rd Annual Alcohol Awareness Month Public Service Announcement, to encourage students to make healthy choices and abstain from underage drinking. Students in grades 4-12 are invited to create a poster, essay or video highlighting their best message that tells friends and classmates “Every Day is a Good Day...Alcohol Free”

8 poster entries will be featured in the New Jersey Herald

3 writers will record their entry, & be featured on iHeartMedia 102.3 FM

1 video entry to be featured on social media platforms (30- 60 second video)

Contest Guidelines:

- Written entries must be 100 words or less.
- For poster entries, use 8 1/2” x 11” white paper. (Your artwork must come from your imagination.)
- No copyrighted characters, images, or celebrities may be used or inferred. (If you have seen it on TV, the movies, video games, cartoons, or from athletes, it can’t be used in your entry.)
- Fill out the entry form below and attach it to your poster.
- Entries must be based on the contest’s theme
- You may work with a partner or a group, but we must receive an entry form from each person
- Deadline: March 24th, 2023 by 5PM. Questions? Call Laura Burger at 908-747-1149.
