An exciting opportunity for Sussex County students grades 4-12 to shine by igniting your creativity and passion for a healthier future!

CONTEST DEADLINE NOV 9, 2026 BY 5PM

The Sussex County Coalition for Healthy & Safe Communities, a Center for Prevention & Counseling program, hosts its 26th annual “What’s Your Anti-Drug?” Contest empowering students to voice how they stay drug-free. Maybe it’s their favorite sport, their friends, art, music, their pet, or personal goals. Students are invited to create and submit either artwork, a story, poem, photo, or video highlighting their best message that tells their friends and classmates how they stay drug-free!

All contest winners will be recognized on The Center for Prevention and Counseling’s website and social media account throughout the year!

- A total of 40 selected pieces will receive an opportunity to be featured in the 2027 issue of the RISE Youth Magazine
- 3 written essay/poems will be recorded and featured on iHeartMedia
- 1 video will be featured on True Productions Digital Ads

CONTEST GUIDELINES

- Written entries (stories or poems) must not exceed 100 words, and be neatly typed or printed on 8.5"x 11" paper.
- Poster entries, use 8.5" x 11" paper (portrait or landscape) white paper
- Submit unfolded photos and artwork in large envelopes with cardboard protecting each side to prevent bending. Complete the Contest Submission form and tape it to the back of your contest entry
- Entries must be based on the contest theme “What’s Your Anti-Drug?”
- Video entries must be 1920 X 1080.JPG, .PNG, .MOV or .MP4 with no sound and maximum length of 30 seconds. Your video should be able to convey your “What’s Your Anti-Drug?” message. The video can have text overlay (subtitles).
- Your artwork must come from your imagination – no copywritten characters, images, brands or celebrities may be used or inferred. (If you have seen it on TV, movies, video games, cartoons or from athletes or popstars, it cannot be used in your entry.)
- You may work with a partner or group but must include a contest submission form from each person

Contact Kaitlyn@centerforprevention.org or call 908-747-1178 with questions.

Submissions must be mailed to Center for Prevention & Counseling, 61 Spring St., Newton, NJ 07860 or emailed to Kaitlyn@centerforprevention.org.
